

There is little question in my mind that putting these toxins into the environment is just not acceptable. I strongly support a full ban of AFFF, unless required by federal law, by 2022. There is no reason to delay. Fluorine free foams exist and are known to be effective. A timely and full ban is consistent with other states, will reduce exposure to firefighters and first responders and significantly reduce toxic chemical contamination of our environment.

Thank you

Carol Rizzolo
24 Long Hill Farm
Guilford, CT
203-464-4451